It is rumored that G. H. Meyer, of the firm of Meyer & Suedekum, is a candidate for City Collector. Mr. Meyer is well qualified to fill this office, and if he is elected will no doubt give the best of satisfaction.

Fire Marshal Richards, from Chicago, Ill., and Miss Pearl Byron and Mrs. Knapp from Mattoon, Ill., were in attendance at Court Tuesday, as witnesses in case State vs. A. E. Evans, alias A. E. Summers, charged with burning a building at Cape Girardeau in October 1911. He plead guilty to arson and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Miss Tillie Campbell gave a heart party Saturday afternoon complimentary to the Misses Cheatham and Walther, who have just returned from Cape Girardeau, where they are attending the Normal to spend the holidays.—Jefferson County Republican.

Among the cases docketed for this term of Circuit Court, there are two from Butler county and two from Stoddard county. The entire days, Monday and Tuesday, were spent trying criminal cases, several criminal cases are set for Saturday and Monday, also a large civil docket, so Court will be in session several days next week.

Easter Sunday comes on March 23 this year, almost as it can occur and the earliest date between the years of 1900 and 1925; and, according to the old weather saying, we should have a short winter and an early spring. Easter is known as a movable holiday its coming being governed by certain calendar rules established by the Council of Nice. It occurs on the Sunday which comes next after the full moon on or after March 21, and thus may occur as early as March 22 or as late as April 25. During the next twelve years, Easter will occur but twice in March, these being March 21, 1918 and March 27, 1921. From this, it appears that Easter occurs in March three times in each period of thirteen years.

During the year ending December 31st, 1912, Cape Girardeau county paid out $422.68 for support and maintaining boys at the Missouri Training School for boys sent there by order of the Circuit Court, and $240 for support of two girls at the Missouri Industrial Home for Girls. The sum of $5977.05 was paid for board, clothing and transportation of the insane during the year. This last named amount seems large to be paid out to take care of the county's indigent insane and as this county owns several hundred acres of land it might be cheaper on the county to erect suitable buildings on the county farm and take care of our own people at home. This might be considered an experiment but we believe that it can be done to great advantage and it would be well to consider the matter. The cost of holding the primary and general election in 1912 amounts to about $3645.15.

Clark Gardner, night switchman at the Cement plant, while loading the Cement company's car with rock at Hely's Quarry Wednesday night, was attacked and severely beaten over the head and body with a piece of gas pipe by the night watchman at the quarry. A conveyance was called immediately and he was taken to the office of Dr. Hope, who dressed his injuries and was then taken to the St. Francis Hospital. The injuries received about his body were the most serious. We understand a very close friend of the Bulgarian, furnished bond for him to the amount of $500, also obtaining a permit for him to carry a gun for his protection, he claiming threats had been made on his life by employees of the Cement plant, although from reliable sources, this report has never been substantiated. Men of such brutish nature should be punished, and don't think a bond should even be taken under consideration.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

Monday, first day, January term, 1913.

The first business of the Court was the taking of the oath by Sheriff Summers and his deputies.

The Court then appointed Attorneys Lane, Stewart and Hays committee to examine E. L. McClinton as to his qualifications as stenographer, he being appointed Court Stenographer by Judge Kelly.

Florence Stevens vs. Frederick T. Stevens, divorce heretofore granted, made final and absolute.

In case of contest of will Thomas J. Juden vs. Julia E. Corn et al., cause taken up and agreement of attorneys is taken under advisement by Court.

State of Missouri vs. Thomas Doyle, assault, the State waives felony charge, and defendant pleads guilty to charge of common assault. The Court fixes his fine at $1.00 and gives stay of execution 90 days.

State of Missouri vs. Ed V. Mizzi; State waives felony charge defendant pleads guilty of common assault and Court imposes fine of $5.00.

State of Missouri vs. Fred Burford, carrying concealed weapons, continued to next term of court.

In case of State vs. London, carnal knowledge, the cause is taken up and argued, and jury returns verdict of "not guilty."
